REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Board of Directors and Management, i.e. officers, and employees, of SM Prime Holdings, Inc. (the “Corporation/Company”) hereby commit themselves to the principles and the best practices contained in this Revised Manual on Corporate Governance (the “Manual”), and acknowledge that the same may guide the attainment of their corporate goals.

OBJECTIVE

This Manual shall institutionalize the principles, policies, programs, and procedures of good corporate governance in the entire organization.

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) and Management, employees and shareholders, believe that good governance is a necessary component of what constitutes sound strategic business management and will therefore undertake every effort necessary to create awareness thereof within the organization in the shortest time possible.

RULES OF INTERPRETATION

All references to the masculine gender in the salient provisions of this Manual shall likewise cover the feminine gender.

All doubts or questions that may arise in the interpretation or application of this Manual shall be resolved in favor of promoting transparency, accountability, and fairness to the stakeholders and investors of the Corporation.

DEFINITION OF TERMS

- a. Corporate Governance. The system of stewardship and control to guide organizations in fulfilling their long-term economic, moral, legal and social obligations towards their stakeholders.

Corporate governance is a system of direction, feedback and control using regulations, performance standards and ethical guidelines to hold the Board and Senior Management accountable for ensuring ethical behavior – reconciling long-term customer satisfaction with shareholder value – to the benefit of all stakeholders and society.

Its purpose is to maximize the organization’s long-term success, creating sustainable value for its shareholders, stakeholders and the nation.

- b. Board of Directors. The governing body elected by the stockholders that exercises the corporate powers of the Corporation, conducts all its business and controls its properties.
- c. Exchange. An organized market place or facility that brings together buyers and sellers, and executes trades of securities and/or commodities.
- d. Management. A group of executives given the authority by the Board of Directors to implement the policies it has laid down in the conduct of the business of the corporation.

REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

- e. Independent Director. A person who is independent of Management and the controlling shareholder, and is free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a director.
- f. Executive Director. A director who has executive responsibility of day-to-day operations of a part or the whole of the organization.
- g. Non-Executive Director. A director who has no executive responsibility and does not perform any work related to the operations of the corporation.
- h. Non-Audit Work. The other services offered by an external auditor to the Corporation that are not directly related and relevant to its statutory audit functions, such as, accounting, payroll, bookkeeping, reconciliation, computer project management, data processing, or information technology outsourcing services, internal audit, and other services that may compromise the independence and objectivity of an external auditor.
- i. Internal Control. A process designed and effected by the Board of Directors, Senior Management, and all levels of personnel to provide reasonable assurance on the achievement of objectives through efficient and effective operations; reliable, complete and timely financial and management information; and compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and the organization's policies and procedures.
- j. Internal Audit. An independent and objective assurance activity designed to add value to and improve the Corporation's operations, and help it accomplish its objectives by providing a systematic and disciplined approach in the evaluation and improvement of the effectiveness of risk management, control and governance processes.
- k. Internal Audit Department. A department of the Corporation that provides independent and objective assurance services in order to add value to and improve the Corporation's operations.
- l. Enterprise Risk Management. A process, effected by an entity's Board of Directors, Management and other personnel, applied in strategy setting and across the enterprise that is designed to identify potential events that may affect the entity, manage risks to be within its risk appetite, and provide reasonable assurance regarding the achievement of entity objectives.
- m. Related Party. Shall cover the Company's subsidiaries, as well as affiliates and any party (including their subsidiaries, affiliates and special purpose entities), that the Company exerts direct or indirect control over or that exerts direct or indirect control over the Company; the Company's directors; officers; shareholders and related interests (DOSRI); and their spouses and relatives within the fourth civil degree of consanguinity or affinity, as well as corresponding persons in affiliated companies. This shall also include such other person or juridical entity whose interest may pose a potential conflict with the interest of the Company.
- n. Related Party Transactions. A transfer of resources, services or obligations between a reporting entity and a related party, regardless of whether a price is charged. It shall be interpreted broadly to include not only transactions that are entered into with related parties, but also outstanding transactions that are entered into with an unrelated party that subsequently becomes a related party.

- o. Stakeholders. Any individual, organization or society at large who can either affect and/or be affected by the Company's strategies, policies, business decisions and operations, in general. This includes, among others, customers, creditors, employees, suppliers, investors, as well as the government and community in which it operates.

I. GOVERNANCE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

1. Establishing a Competent Board

Compliance with the principles and policies of good corporate governance shall start with the Board. It is the Board's responsibility to foster the long-term success of the Corporation, and to sustain its competitiveness and profitability in a manner consistent with its fiduciary responsibility, corporate objective and the best interests of its stockholders and other stakeholders. To ensure a high standard of best practice for the Corporation, its stockholders and other stakeholders, the Board shall conduct itself with utmost honesty and integrity in the discharge of its duties, functions, and responsibilities. Its Board charter shall be publicly available and posted on the Company website.

1.1. Composition

- 1.1.1. The Board shall be composed of eight (8) directors who shall be elected by the Corporation's stockholders annually, and shall hold office for one (1) year and until their successors are elected and qualified in accordance with the Corporation's By-Laws. The Board shall be composed of directors with collective working knowledge, experience or expertise that is relevant to the Company's industry or sector. The Board shall always ensure that it has an appropriate mix of competence and expertise and that its members remain qualified for their positions individually and collectively, to enable it to fulfill its roles and responsibilities and respond to the needs of the organization based on the evolving business environment and strategic direction.
- 1.1.2. The Board shall be composed of a majority of non-executive directors who possess the necessary qualifications to effectively participate and help secure objective, independent judgment on corporate affairs and to substantiate proper checks and balances.

1.2. Training

- 1.2.1. The Corporation shall provide a comprehensive 8-hour orientation program for new directors, including an understanding of the contributions that the director is expected to make, an explanation of the Board and its committees, as well as the Corporation's business, including corporate governance and other matters that will assist them in discharging their duties. Existing directors shall also be provided an annual 4-hour continuing training on corporate governance topics such as audit, sustainability and climate, risk management, and strategy, among others, to stay abreast with the latest business and regulatory developments.
- 1.2.2. The Corporation shall also provide general access to training courses to its directors as a matter of continuous professional education as well as to maintain and enhance their skills as directors, and keep them updated in their knowledge and understanding of the Corporation's business.

- 1.2.3. The Board shall adopt a training policy for its members and key officers that shall contain the minimum factors and considerations in alignment with applicable laws, rules, and other issuances.

1.3. Board Diversity

- 1.3.1. A diverse Board better understands its customer base and the environment that the business operates in. This promotes different perspectives and ideas and mitigates groupthink to achieve optimal decision-making. Board diversity may refer to distinctions in age, ethnicity, culture, skills, competence, knowledge, disability, and gender, among others. The Board shall also utilize a Board Matrix, ensuring the appropriate mix of skills and competencies, and to monitor the Board's diversity goals and progress relevant to the Company's strategic objectives.
- 1.3.2. The Company is committed to the following principles:
 - a. Recognizes and embraces the benefits of having a diverse Board and sees increasing diversity at Board level as an essential element in the attainment of its strategic objectives and maintaining a prudent corporate governance.
 - b. All Board appointments are made on merit, in the context of the skills, experience, independence and knowledge, and candidates will be considered against objective criteria, which the Board as a whole requires to be effective.

1.4. Corporate Secretary

- 1.4.1. The Board is assisted by the Corporate Secretary, who is an officer of the Corporation and separate from the Compliance Officer. The Corporate Secretary shall not be a member of the Board of Directors and shall annually attend a training on corporate governance. He is primarily responsible to the Corporation and its shareholders, and not to the Chairman or President of the Company. His loyalty to the mission, vision and specific business objectives of the corporate entity come with his duties.
- 1.4.2. Considering the varied functions and duties, the Corporate Secretary must possess administrative and interpersonal skills, and if not the general counsel, must have some legal skills. He must also have some financial and accounting skills, working knowledge of the operations of the Corporation, and shall be a Filipino citizen and resident of the Philippines.
- 1.4.3. The Corporate Secretary shall have the following duties and responsibilities:
 - a. Assists the Board and the Board Committees in the conduct of their meetings, including preparing an annual schedule of Board and Committee meetings and the annual board calendar and assisting the Chairs of the Board and its Committees to set agendas for those meetings;

REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

- b. Safe keeps and preserves the integrity of the minutes of the meetings of the Board and its Committees as well as other official records of the Corporation;

- d. Works fairly and objectively with the Board, Management, shareholders, and other stakeholders and contributes to the flow of information between the Board and Management, the Board and its Committees, and the Board and its stakeholders, including shareholders;
- e. Advises on the establishment of Board Committees and their terms of reference;
- f. Informs members of the Board, in accordance with the By-laws, of the agenda of their meetings at least five working days in advance, and ensures that the members have before them accurate information that will enable them to arrive at intelligent decisions on matters that require their approval;
- g. Attends all Board meetings, except when justifiable causes, such as illness, death in the immediate family and serious accidents, prevent him from doing so;
- h. Performs required administrative functions;
- i. Oversees the drafting of the by-laws and ensures that they conform with regulatory requirements; and
- j. Performs such other duties and responsibilities as may be provided by the SEC.

1.5. Compliance Officer

- 1.5.1. To ensure adherence to corporate principles and best practices, the Board shall designate a Compliance Officer who shall hold the position of at least a Senior Vice President or its equivalent. He shall have direct reporting responsibilities to the Chairman of the Board. The Compliance Officer shall not be a member of the Board of Directors and shall annually attend a training on corporate governance. He is primarily liable to the Corporation and its shareholders, and not to the Chairman or President of the Company.
- 1.5.2. The appointment of the Compliance Officer shall be immediately disclosed to the Commission on SEC Form 17-C. All correspondence relative to his functions as such, shall be addressed to the said Officer.
- 1.5.3. The Compliance Officer shall have the following duties and responsibilities:
 - a. Ensures proper onboarding of new directors (i.e., orientation on the Company's business, Charters, Articles of Incorporation and By-laws, among others);
 - b. Monitors, reviews, evaluates and ensures the compliance by the Corporation, its officers and directors with the relevant laws, this Manual, rules and regulations and all governance issuances of regulatory agencies;

- c. Reports the matter to the Board if violations are found and recommends the imposition of appropriate disciplinary action;
- d. Ensures the integrity and accuracy of all documentary submissions to regulators;
- e. Appears before the SEC when summoned in relation to compliance with this Manual and other relevant matters that need to be clarified;
- f. Collaborates with other departments to properly address compliance issues, which may be subject to investigation;
- g. Identifies possible areas of compliance risks and issues and works towards the resolution of the same;
- h. Ensures the attendance of Board members and key officers to relevant trainings; and
- i. Performs such other duties and responsibilities as may be provided by the SEC.

1.6. Board Adviser

The Board may engage Board or Board Committee advisers to ensure objective guidance or resource on certain issues in order to arrive at well-informed decisions or direction. This enhances diversity of contributions within the Board or Board Committees, fostering constructive and engaging discussions conducive to decision-making. Advisers shall undergo an onboarding orientation program to have an understanding of the Company's business, expected contributions to the Board, and be apprised with the latest Company and Board discussions and/or directions relevant to his/her appointment. Advisers shall have no voting rights and shall inhibit from participating in discussions that may pose a potential conflict of interest.

1.6.1 Responsibilities

- a. To provide objective and expert advice and opinion on issues and matters presented to the Board and/or its Committees;
- b. To abide by the Company rules and policies such as but not limited to, Conflict of Interest, Insider Trading, and Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption, among others;
- c. Attend at least 50% of all regular Board meetings; and
- d. Annually attend a training on corporate governance.

1.6.2 Qualifications

Board advisers must possess the required competence, leadership, business acumen, knowledge, and experience to complement the Board's diversity matrix and add value to the works of the Board or Board Committee to which such adviser is appointed.

REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

They must also be a reputable individual and possess a good level of background and knowledge on corporate governance to ensure their contributions are aligned with regulatory requirements and best practices. Other expert level qualifications may be required by the Board as needed.

1.6.3 Selection and appointment

The Corporate Governance and Sustainability Committee shall be responsible in the screening and selection of prospective Board advisers and shall recommend the same for appointment, reappointment, and removal by the Board.

2. Establishing Clear Roles and Responsibilities of the Board

The fiduciary roles, responsibilities and accountabilities of the Board as provided under the law, the Company's Articles and By-laws, and other legal pronouncements and guidelines shall be clearly made known to all directors as well as to shareholders and other stakeholders.

- 2.1. The Board Members shall act on a fully informed basis, in good faith, with due diligence and care, and in the best interest of the Company and all shareholders. To ensure a high standard of best practice for the Corporation, its stockholders and other stakeholders, the Board shall have, among others, the following duties and responsibilities:
- a. The Board shall oversee the development of and approve the Company's business objectives and strategy, and monitor their implementation, in order to sustain the Company's long-term viability and strength.
 - b. The Board shall be headed by a competent and qualified Chairman.
 - c. The Board shall be responsible for ensuring and adopting an effective succession planning program for directors, key officers and management to ensure growth and a continued increase in the shareholders' value. This shall include adopting a policy on the retirement age of directors and key officers.
 - d. The Board shall align the remuneration of key officers and Board members, including Management, with the long-term interests of the Company such as sustainability and climate-related considerations. In doing so, it shall formulate and adopt a remuneration policy specifying the relationship between remuneration and performance. Further, no director shall participate in discussions or deliberations involving their own remuneration.
 - e. The Board shall disclose in this Manual a formal and transparent board nomination and election policy that shall include how it accepts nominations from minority shareholders and reviews nominated candidates. This policy shall also include an assessment of the effectiveness of the Board's processes and procedures in the nomination, election, or replacement of a director. In addition, its process of identifying the quality of directors shall be aligned with the strategic direction of the Company.
 - f. The Board shall have the overall responsibility in ensuring that there is a group-wide policy and system governing related party transactions (RPTs) and other unusual or infrequently occurring transactions, particularly those which pass certain thresholds of materiality. The policy shall include the appropriate review and approval of material or significant RPTs, which guarantee fairness and transparency of the transactions. The policy shall encompass all entities within the SM Property Group, taking into account their size, structure, risk profile and complexity of operations.

- g. The Board shall be primarily responsible for approving the selection and assessing the performance of the Management led by the President, and control functions led by their respective heads (Chief Risk Officer, Chief Compliance Officer, and Chief Audit Executive).
- h. The Board shall establish an effective performance management framework that will ensure that the Management, including the President, and personnel's performance is at par with the standards set by the Board and Senior Management.
- i. The Board shall oversee that an appropriate internal control system is in place, including setting up a mechanism for monitoring and managing potential conflicts of interest of Management, board members, and shareholders. The Board shall also approve the Internal Audit Charter.
- j. The Board shall oversee that a sound enterprise risk management (ERM) framework is in place to effectively identify, monitor, assess and manage key business risks. The risk management framework shall guide the Board in identifying units/business lines and enterprise-level risk exposures, as well as the effectiveness of risk management strategies.
- k. The Board shall have a Board Charter that formalizes and clearly states its roles, responsibilities and accountabilities in carrying out its fiduciary duties. The Board Charter shall serve as a guide to the directors in the performance of their functions and shall be publicly available and posted on the Company website.
- l. The Board shall annually review the Company's vision and mission statement, or as the need arises.
- m. Members of the Board shall disclose to the Corporation within three (3) business days any transactions related to their own SM Prime shares for proper filing of reportorial requirements with the appropriate regulatory agencies and disclosure of an annual report on trading transactions in the Company's website.
- n. The Board shall have oversight function in the implementation and monitoring of the Company's sustainability and climate-related issues, policies and strategies to ensure company support and alignment with industry economic, environmental, social, and governance (EESG) best practices.
- o. The Board shall have the overall oversight responsibility in ensuring that strategies and programs are implemented in compliance with the Anti-Money Laundering Act and Terrorism Financing Prevention and Suppression Act, their respective IRR, and other applicable AMLC issuances.
- p. Other duties and responsibilities as may be assigned by relevant regulations such as issuances of the SEC.

REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

2.2. Chairman of the Board

- 2.2.1. The Board shall be headed by a competent and qualified Chairman. The roles and responsibilities of the Chairman include, among others, the following:
- a. Ensures that the meetings of the Board are held in accordance with the Corporation's By-Laws;
 - b. Makes certain that the meeting agenda focuses on strategic matters, including the overall risk appetite of the Corporation, considering the developments in the business and regulatory environments, key governance concerns, and contentious issues that will significantly affect operations;
 - c. Guarantees that the Board receives accurate, timely, relevant, insightful, concise and clear information to enable it to make sound decisions;
 - d. Facilitates discussion on key issues by fostering an environment conducive for constructive debate and leveraging on the skills and expertise of individual directors;
 - e. Ensures that the Board sufficiently challenges and inquires on reports submitted and representations made by Management;
 - f. Assures the availability of proper orientation for first-time directors and continuing training opportunities for all directors;
 - g. Makes sure that performance of the Board is evaluated at least once a year and discussed/followed up on; and
 - h. Maintains qualitative and timely lines of communication and information between the Board and Management.
- 2.2.2. The roles of the Chairman and the President shall be separate to ensure an appropriate balance of power, increased accountability, and greater capacity of the Board for independent decision making.

2.3 Board Vacancies

- 2.3.1. Any vacancy in the Board of Directors other than by removal or by expiration of term may be filled by the vote of at least a majority of the remaining directors, if still constituting a quorum; otherwise, said vacancies must be filled by the stockholders or members in a regular or special meeting called for that purpose.

Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors shall be filled only by an election at a regular or at a special meeting of stockholders duly called for the purpose, or in the same meeting authorizing the increase of directors if so stated in the notice of the meeting.

When the vacancy arises from the removal of director by the stockholders, the election may be held on the same day of the meeting authorizing the removal and this fact must be so stated in the agenda and notice of said meeting. In all other cases, the election must be held no later than forty-five (45) days from the time the vacancy arose. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be referred to as replacement director and shall serve only for the unexpired term of the predecessor in office.

2.3.2. Termination/Cessation of Independent Directorship

In case of resignation, disqualification or cessation of independent directorship and only after notice has been made with the Securities and Exchange Commission within five (5) days from such resignation, disqualification or cessation, the vacancy shall be filled by the vote of at least a majority of the remaining directors, if still constituting a quorum, upon the nomination of the Corporate Governance and Sustainability Committee, otherwise, said vacancies shall be filled by the stockholders in a regular or special meeting called for that purpose. An independent director so elected to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

2.4. Nomination and Election of Board of Directors

- 2.4.1. The Corporate Secretary shall set a reasonable period for the submission of nominations of candidates for election to the Board of Directors. All nominations for directors submitted in writing to the Corporate Secretary within such nomination period shall be valid. A stockholder of record, including a minority stockholder, entitled to notice of and to vote at the regular or special meeting of the stockholders for the election of directors shall be qualified to be nominated as a director.
- 2.4.2. The Company may engage the services of professional search firms or use other external sources of candidates when searching for candidates to the Board of Directors.
- 2.4.3. The Corporate Governance and Sustainability Committee meets, pre-screens and checks the qualifications of, and deliberates on all persons nominated to be elected to the Board of Directors from the pool of candidates submitted by the nominating stockholders. The Corporate Governance and Sustainability Committee shall prepare a Final List of Candidates after considering the qualifications and disqualifications set forth in the succeeding sections. Said list shall contain all the information about these nominees. Only nominees qualified by the Corporate Governance and Sustainability Committee and whose names appear on the Final List of Candidates shall be eligible for election as Independent Director. No other nomination shall be entertained after the Final List of Candidates shall have been prepared.
- 2.4.4. Based on the Final List of Candidates, directors are elected by shareholders individually. The vote required for the election of directors is majority of the outstanding capital stock. The election of Directors shall be by ballot and each stockholder entitled to vote may cast the vote to which the number of shares he owns entitles him, for as many persons as there are to be elected as Directors, or he may cumulate or give to one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal, or he may distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he may see fit, provided that the whole number of votes cast by him shall not exceed the number of shares owned by him multiplied by the whole number of Directors to be elected.

- 2.4.5. To preserve the integrity of the election process, the Corporation shall employ the services of an external party to validate the voting results.

2.5. Qualifications

- 2.5.1. A director of the Corporation must possess the following qualifications:

- a. Ownership of at least one (1) share of stock of the Corporation;
- b. At least twenty-one (21) years of age;
- c. At least a college graduate or have sufficient experience in managing the business to substitute for such formal education;
- d. Proven to possess integrity, probity and assiduousness;
- e. Proven to possess the appropriate level of skill and experience in line with the strategic plans and goals of the Corporation; and
- f. In addition to the qualifications required by relevant laws, additional qualifications which may be provided by the Board, such as practical understanding of the Corporation's business, previous business experience, or membership in good standing in relevant industry, business or professional organizations.

2.6. Permanent Disqualifications

- 2.6.1. The following may be considered as grounds for the permanent disqualification of a director:
- a. Any person convicted by final judgment or order by a competent judicial or administrative body of any crime that: (a) involves the purchase or sale of securities, as defined in the Securities Regulation Code; (b) arises out of the person's conduct as an underwriter, broker, dealer, investment adviser, principal, distributor, mutual fund dealer, futures commission merchant, commodity trading advisor, or floor broker; or (c) arises out of his fiduciary relationship with a bank, quasi-bank, trust company, investment house or as an affiliated person of any of them;
 - b. Any person who, by reason of misconduct, after hearing, is permanently enjoined by a final judgment or order of the SEC, Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) or any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction from: (a) acting as underwriter, broker, dealer, investment adviser, principal distributor, mutual fund dealer, futures commission merchant, commodity trading advisor, or floor broker; (b) acting as director or officer of a bank, quasi-bank, trust company, investment house, or investment company; (c) engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in any of the capacities mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) above, or willfully violating the laws that govern securities and banking activities.

The disqualification shall also apply if (a) such person is the subject of an order of the

REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

SEC, BSP or any court or administrative body denying, revoking or suspending any registration, license or permit issued to him under the Revised Corporation Code, Securities Regulation Code or any other law administered by the SEC or BSP, or under any rule or regulation issued by the Commission or BSP; (b) such person has otherwise been restrained to engage in any activity involving securities and banking; or (c) such person is the subject of an effective order of a self-regulatory organization suspending or expelling him from membership, participation or association with a member or participant of the organization;

- c. Any person convicted by final judgment or order by a court, or competent administrative body of an offense involving moral turpitude, fraud, embezzlement, theft, estafa, counterfeiting, misappropriation, forgery, bribery, false affirmation, perjury or other fraudulent acts;
- d. Any person found administratively liable, by final judgement for any offense involving fraudulent acts punishable under the Revised Corporation Code, Securities Regulation Code, and other laws, rules or regulations enforced or implemented by the Commission committed within five (5) years prior to the date of his election or appointment or within the tenure of the person;
- e. Any person who has been adjudged by final judgment or order of the SEC, BSP, court, or competent administrative body to have willfully violated, or willfully aided, abetted, counseled, induced or procured the violation of any provision of the Revised Corporation Code, Securities Regulation Code or any other law, rule, regulation or order administered by the SEC or BSP;
- f. Any person judicially declared as insolvent;
- g. Any person found guilty by final judgment or found administratively liable, by order of a foreign court or equivalent financial regulatory authority of acts, violations or misconduct similar to any of the acts, violations or misconduct enumerated previously;
- h. Conviction by final judgment of an offense punishable by imprisonment for more than six (6) years, or a violation of the Revised Corporation Code committed within five (5) years prior to the date of his election or appointment;
- i. Any person found administratively liable, by final judgement, within five (5) years prior to the election or appointment, or within the tenure, for refusal to allow the inspection and/or reproduction of corporate records.
- j. No person shall qualify or be eligible for nomination or election to the Board if he is engaged in any business which competes with or is antagonistic to that of the Corporation. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a person shall be deemed to be so engaged:
 - i. If he is the owner (either of record or as beneficial owner) of 5% or more of any outstanding class of share of, any corporation (other than one in which the Corporation owns at least 20% of the capital stock) which is engaged in a business directly competitive to that of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates;

- ii. If he is an officer, manager, or controlling person of, or the owner or any member of his immediate family is the owner (either of record or as beneficial owner) of 5% or more of any outstanding class of shares of any corporation (other than one in which the Corporation owns at least 20% of the capital stock) which is an adverse party in any suit, action or proceeding (of whatever nature, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or judicial) by or against the Corporation, which has been actually filed or threatened, imminent or probably, to be filed;
 - iii. If he is determined by the Board, in the exercise of its judgment in good faith, to be the nominee, officer, trustee, adviser, or legal counsel, of any individual set forth in (i) or (ii) hereof; and
- k. Other grounds as the SEC may provide.

2.7. Temporary Disqualification

- 2.7.1. In addition, the following may be grounds for temporary disqualification of incumbent directors:
- a. Absence in more than fifty percent (50%) of all regular and special meetings of the Board during his incumbency, or any twelve (12) month period during the said incumbency, unless the absence is due to illness, death in the immediate family or serious accident. The disqualification shall apply for purposes of the succeeding election;
 - b. Dismissal or termination for cause as director of any publicly-listed company, public company, registered issuer of securities and holder of a secondary license from the Commission. The disqualification shall be in effect until he has cleared himself from any involvement in the cause that gave rise to his dismissal or termination;
 - c. If the beneficial equity ownership of an independent director in the corporation or its subsidiaries and affiliates exceeds two percent (2%) of its subscribed capital stock. The disqualification from being elected as an independent director is lifted if the limit is later complied with; and
 - d. If any of the judgments or orders cited in the grounds for permanent disqualification has not yet become final.
- 2.7.2. Temporary disqualification shall be at the discretion of the Board and shall require a resolution of the majority of the Board.
- 2.7.3. A director shall have sixty (60) days upon the occurrence of any ground for temporary disqualification to remedy or correct the same otherwise, the disqualification shall become permanent.

2.8. Meetings of the Board

REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

- 2.8.1. Members of the Board shall attend regular and special meetings of the Board in person or via teleconference or videoconference or by any other technological means allowed by the Commission.
- 2.8.2. The Board may, to promote transparency, require the presence of at least one (1) independent director in all of its meetings. However, the absence of an independent director shall not affect the quorum requirements if he is duly notified of the meeting but notwithstanding such notice fails to attend.
- 2.8.3. The Board of Directors shall meet at least quarterly. Board meetings shall be scheduled in advance before the start of the year.
- 2.8.4. Items to be discussed during the board meeting shall be made available to each director at least five (5) business days in advance. In emergency circumstances, however, the meeting may be called at a shorter notice.

2.9. Compensation of Directors

- 2.9.1. Directors shall not receive any compensation unless approved by the stockholders representing at least majority of the outstanding capital stock or provided in the Corporation's By-Laws. No director shall participate in the approval of his compensation. However, the Board may, from time to time, approve a reasonable per diem that a director may receive for attendance in Board and Board Committee meetings.

3. Establishing Board Committees

To address specific tasks and responsibilities and ensure optimal performance of the Board, the Board shall adopt five (5) committees, namely the Executive Committee, the Corporate Governance and Sustainability Committee, the Audit Committee, the Board Risk Oversight Committee and the Related Party Transactions Committee. 3.5. The Related Party Transactions Committee

- 3.5.1. The Related Party Transactions Committee shall have the primary function of reviewing all material related party transactions (RPT). It shall be composed of at least three (3) non-executive directors, the majority of whom, including the Chairman, shall be independent. In accordance with this, the members of the Committee may be removed or replaced, and any vacancies in the Committee shall be filled by the Board. Each member shall have adequate and competent knowledge of the Company's business and industry in which it operates.
- 3.5.2. The Related Party Transactions Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:
- a. Evaluates on an ongoing basis existing relations between and among businesses and counterparties to ensure that all related parties are continuously identified, RPTs are monitored, and subsequent changes in relationships with counterparties (from non-related to related and vice versa) are captured. Related parties, RPTs and changes in relationships shall be reflected in the relevant reports to the Board and regulators/supervisors;
 - b. Evaluates all material RPTs to ensure that these are not undertaken on more favorable economic terms (e.g., price, commissions, interest rates, fees, tenor, collateral requirement) to such related parties than similar transactions with non-related parties under similar circumstances and that no corporate or business resources of the Company are misappropriated or misapplied, and to determine any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the transactions. In evaluating RPTs, the Committee takes into account, among others, the following:
 - i. The related party's relationship to the Company and interest in the transaction;
 - ii. The material facts of the proposed RPT, including the proposed aggregate value of such transaction;
 - iii. The benefits to the corporation of the proposed RPT;
 - iv. The availability of other sources of comparable products or services; and
 - v. An assessment of whether the proposed RPT is on terms and conditions that are comparable to the terms generally available to an unrelated party under similar circumstances. The Company shall have an effective price discovery system in place and exercise due diligence in determining a fair price for RPTs;

REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

- c. Ensures that appropriate disclosure is made, and/or information is provided to regulating and supervising authorities relating to the Company's RPT exposures, and policies on conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest. The disclosure shall include information on the approach to managing material conflicts of interest that are inconsistent with such policies, and conflicts that could arise as a result of the Company's affiliation or transactions with other related parties;
 - d. Reports to the Board of Directors on a regular basis, the status and aggregate exposures to each related party;
 - e. Ensures that transactions with related parties, including write-off of exposures are subject to a periodic independent review or audit process;
 - f. Oversees the implementation of the system for identifying, monitoring, measuring, controlling, and reporting RPTs, including a periodic review of RPT policies and procedures; and
 - g. Performs other duties and responsibilities as the Committee may deem appropriate within the scope of its primary functions or as may be assigned by the Board.
- 3.5.3. Other duties and responsibilities are provided in the Related Party Transactions Committee Charter.
- 3.5.4. Related party transactions are generally allowed, provided, that these are done in a sound and prudent manner. The Company is expected to exercise appropriate oversight and to implement effective system in managing these transactions.

In compliance with regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company has adopted a Revised Related Party Transactions Policy which incorporated rules on material related party transactions of the Company. The policy provides that the Company's Board of Directors shall ensure that transactions with related parties are handled in a sound and prudent manner, with integrity, and in compliance with applicable laws and regulations to protect the interests of the Company's shareholders and other stakeholders. All material individual related party transactions are referred to the Chief Risk Officer for review and endorsement to Related Party Committee prior to approval by at least two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors with at least a majority of the independent directors approving the transaction.

4. Fostering Commitment

To show full commitment to the Company, the directors shall devote the time and attention necessary to properly and effectively perform their duties and responsibilities, including sufficient time to be familiar with the Corporation's business.

- 4.1. The directors shall have the responsibility to attend and actively participate in all meetings of the Board, Committees, and Shareholders in person or through tele-/videoconferencing conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Commission, except when justifiable causes, such as, illness, death in the immediate family and serious accidents, prevent them from doing so.  - f. A record of the voting results for each agenda item, including approving, dissenting, and abstaining votes for each agenda item;
 - g. A description of the opportunity given to stockholders to ask questions; and
 - h. A record of the questions asked and answers given or a statement that no questions were raised by the stockholders during the meeting, if there were none.
- II. Signatory —The minutes of the meeting shall be signed by the Chairman and the Corporate Secretary or the Assistant Corporate Secretary as identified in the company's General Information Sheet.
- III. Posting —The minutes of the meeting shall be posted on the company's website within five (5) business days from the date of the regular or special stockholders meeting.
- a. The draft minutes of the meeting shall be signed and posted in the website within five (5) business days from the date of the Company's stockholders meeting. The draft may include either a watermark or a footnote, which indicates that the minutes of the meeting are still subject to the approval of the stockholders in the next stockholders' meeting.
 - b. The approved minutes of the previous meeting shall be signed and posted in the website within five (5) business days from the approval of the stockholders.
 - c. Both the draft and approved minutes shall be retained in the company's website for a period of five (5) years.

13.4. The Board shall commit to respect the following rights of the stockholders:

13.4.1. Voting Rights

- a. Stockholders shall have the right to nominate, elect, remove and replace directors and vote on certain corporate acts in accordance with the Revised Corporation Code.
- b. Cumulative voting shall be used in the election of directors.

REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

- c. A director shall not be removed without cause if it will deny minority shareholders representation in the Board.
- d. Stockholders may vote in person or by proxy in all meetings of stockholders. When so authorized by the Board, stockholders may also vote through remote communication or in absentia. The Corporation shall ensure that there are clear guidelines for participation, appropriate requirements and procedures for in absentia voting by stockholders.
- e. Minority shareholders under certain circumstances and the guidelines set forth in relevant rules and regulations of the SEC are likewise granted the right to propose the holding of a special meeting and the right to propose items in the agenda of such meeting, provided that the required qualifications and manner of calling such meeting under the SEC regulations are met.

13.4.2. Pre-emptive Right

- a. Under the Amended Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, no stockholder of the Corporation, because of his/its ownership of stock, has a pre-emptive or other right to purchase, subscribe for or take any part of any stock or of any securities convertible into or carrying options or warrants to purchase stock of the Corporation. Any part of such stock or of other securities may, at any time, be issued, optioned for sale, and sold or disposed of by the Corporation pursuant to a resolution of its Board, to such person and upon such terms as such Board may deem proper, without first offering such stock or securities or any part thereof to existing stockholders. This restriction is printed on the stock certificates of the Corporation.

13.4.3. Right of Inspection

- a. All shareholders shall be allowed to inspect corporate books and records, including but not limited to the minutes of Board meetings and stock registries, in accordance with Sec. 73 of the Revised Corporation Code and shall be furnished with annual reports, including financial statements, without cost or restrictions.

13.4.4. Right to Information

- a. The shareholders shall be provided, upon request, with periodic reports which disclose relevant personal and professional information about the directors and officers and certain other matters, such as their holdings of the Corporation's shares, dealings with the Corporation, relationships among directors and key officers, and the aggregate compensation of directors and officers.
- b. The minority shareholders shall have access to any and all information relating to matters for which the Management is accountable, and to those relating to matters for which the Management shall include such information.

13.4.5. Right to Dividend

- a. Shareholders shall have the right to receive dividends subject to the discretion of the Board.

REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

- b. The Corporation shall be compelled to declare dividends when its retained earnings shall be in excess of 100% of its paid-in capital, except:
 - i. When justified by definite corporate expansion projects or programs approved by the Board; or
 - ii. When the Corporation is prohibited under any loan agreement with any financial institution or creditor, whether local or foreign, from declaring dividends without its consent, and such consent has not been secured; or
 - iii. When it can be clearly shown that such retention is necessary under special circumstances obtaining in the Corporation, such as when there is a need for special reserve for probable contingencies.
- c. The policy of the Corporation is to provide a sustainable dividend stream to its shareholders. The Board determines the dividend payout taking into consideration the Corporation's operating results, cash flows, capital investment needs and debt servicing requirements. Dividends shall be paid within thirty (30) days from the date of declaration.

13.4.6. Appraisal Right

- a. The shareholders shall have appraisal right or the right to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of their shares in the manner provided for under Section 80 of the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines, under any of the following circumstances:
 - i. In case any amendment to the Articles of Incorporation has the effect of changing or restricting the rights of any stockholder or class of shares, or of authorizing preferences in any respect superior to those of outstanding shares of any class, or of extending or shortening the term of corporate existence;
 - ii. In case of sale, lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property and assets as provided in the Revised Corporation Code;
 - iii. In case of merger or consolidation; and
 - iv. In case of investment of corporate funds for any purpose other than the primary purpose of the Company.

13.5. It is the responsibility of the Board of Directors to establish an alternative dispute resolution system to settle intra-corporate disputes in an amicable and effective manner.

As such, the Board of Directors normally engages the services of a neutral third party to assist in the resolution of issues between the Company and stockholders, third parties and regulatory authorities. The alternative dispute resolution system may include arbitration, mediation, conciliation, early neutral evaluation, mini-trial, or any combination thereof, as the Company and the circumstances sees fit.

Consideration is given to the need to promote candor through confidentiality of the process, the policy of fostering prompt, economical, and amicable resolution of disputes in accordance with the principles of integrity of determination by the parties, and the policy that the decision-making authority in the process rests with the parties.

REVISED MANUAL ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

- 13.6. The Company shall establish an Investor Relations Office (IRO), headed by a designated Investor Relations Officer, to facilitate regular and effective engagement with shareholders, investors, analysts, and other stakeholders. The IRO shall maintain open communication channels and support the timely dissemination of relevant Company information through various engagement platforms, including stockholders' meetings, investor and analyst briefings, media briefings, and other appropriate communication channels in consonance with applicable disclosure rules. The Investor Relations Officer, shall be present at all stockholders' meetings to receive and address shareholder inquiries, feedback, complaints, and concerns, and to promote shareholder participation in matters relating to the Company's activities, performance, and governance.

V. DUTIES TO STAKEHOLDERS

14. Respecting Rights of Stakeholders and Effective Redress for Violation of Stakeholder's Rights
